The ethanol in your drinks causes increased urine production (romantic, huh?) leading to dehydration.

Human intervention is often a god-given duty.

Itchy the GMC stresses that the increase in complaints does not mean that standards of medical delivery will be slowed incredibly.